

Angel investor seminar planned for November 4

Lafayette, LA— Entrepreneurs in Acadiana will have the chance to learn about angel and venture capital opportunities during an informational seminar with Clayton White from the South Coast Angel Fund. The free seminar will take place at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, November 4, at the Louisiana Immersive Technologies Enterprise (LITE), 537 Cajundome Blvd.

During the seminar, White will share information about the South Coast Angel Fund, as well as ways individuals can become angel investors and how businesses can leverage these funds.

The South Coast Angel Fund is a member-managed angel venture capital fund designed to utilize the capital, resources and expertise of its members to benefit from its investments in entrepreneurial, early-stage companies, primarily within Louisiana and the Gulf Coast community.

This event is open to any interested individuals. RSVP is requested at bobm@lafayette.org or (337) 593-1412.
