Baldwin and Bundrick join LEDA staff

Lafayette, LA– Jessica Baldwin has joined the staff of LEDA as Executive Assistant to LEDA’s President and CEO. In this role, she is responsible for providing support services to the President and CEO including maintaining his daily schedule and coordinating public speaking engagements, among other duties.

Baldwin is a 2008 graduate of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette with a degree in General Studies.

Ted Bundrick will serve as Executive Director of the Acadiana Economic Development Council (AED). AED represents the primary economic development organizations in Acadia, Iberia, Lafayette, St. Landry, St. Martin and Vermilion Parishes. Bundrick will work with the six-member Board of Directors in all functions associated with the promotion and development of the Acadiana region.

Bundrick graduated from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette with a degree in Public Relations and obtained his MBA from Loyola University. Since graduating in 2000, he has worked throughout Acadiana as a business manager— managing small business entities as well as companies with global product portfolios.
