

Louisiana Technology Council to host capital access forum November 15

Lafayette, LA—Entrepreneurs in Acadiana will have the chance to learn about angel investing and other potential funding options during the upcoming Capital Access Special Interest Group meeting. The event, hosted by the Louisiana Technology Council, will take place on Monday, November 15, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., at the Louisiana Immersive Technologies Enterprise (LITE), 537 Cajundome Blvd. The meeting will be led by Clayton White and Choose Taurman, both members of the South Coast Angel Fund.

During this meeting, White and Taurman will share their extensive knowledge and experience regarding funding and growth opportunities. This meeting is geared to entrepreneurs who are just starting out, as well as those who are established and looking to expand their business. Networking will follow the presentations.

The event is sponsored by LITE, the Lafayette Economic Development Authority (LEDA), and The Accelerator— a partnership between LEDA, LITE, the Greater Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

This event is open to all interested individuals. To register, go to www.ltc-la.org, Events and Programs Tab, Calendar of Events, Capital Access Special Interest Group Open Meeting in Lafayette.
